

Privacy Policy

Teewinot Asset Management appreciates the trust our clients place in us, and we recognize the importance of protecting the confidentiality of nonpublic personal information that we collect from them through our business relationship.

The information is used to ensure accuracy in reporting and record keeping, to perform our regular course of business, and to comply with the law and our regulators.

Keeping this information secure is a top priority at Teewinot and we are pleased to share with you our Privacy Policy:

1. We collect nonpublic personal information about our clients from the following sources:
 - o Applications (such as brokerage account applications)
 - o Investment Advisory contracts
 - o Records of accounts under Teewinot's management
 - o Other forms, correspondence and communications.
2. The information we collect can include:
 - o Name, address, social security number
 - o Assets, income, and investment objectives
 - o Transactions and investments with us (account values, transactions, etc)
 - o Other information useful to Teewinot's services
3. We maintain physical and electronic safeguards to protect non-public personal information.
4. We reserve the right to disclose non-public personal information about our clients and former clients to employees, independent contractors, or other third parties with whom we have contracted to perform services on our behalf, such as brokerage, legal, accounting, compliance, and data processing services. We may disclose all of the information that we collect, as described above.
5. Note that our privacy policy includes no right to disseminate non-public personal information about our clients and former clients to any external or third party for marketing or other purposes not directly related to servicing your account.
6. We may disclose non-public personal information about our clients and former clients as required by Federal, state, or local law.

